

He spoke of it after to mother and told her Mrs. Hall had knowledge of the poem.

Q Do you know where that poem is?

A No, I haven't it.

Q Have you ever seen it home?

A Yes, it was home.

Q Do you know what became of it?

A Probably with the other letters and pictures.

Q Who got all this stuff out of your house, letters that may or may not have been from Dr. Hall, and this poem and other trinkets?

A My aunt, Mrs. Barnhard, of Paterson.

Q She took it all?

A Yes, she took it all.

Q When is the last time you saw those, - I mean how long after your mother's death?

A ~~Probably~~ four or five months.

Q Did anything happen on the day before your mother was killed, did you know whether your mother went out with Mrs. Hall and Mr. Hall to Lake Hopatcong with a lady worker of the church, a Mrs. Clark?

A I do.

Q What do you know about that?

A Mother was invited by Mrs. Hall and Mr. Hall to go on a picnic trip by automobile to Lake Hopatcong the day before
